

Youngstown State University
JUNIOR CIVIC LEAGUE SCHOLARSHIP

Application Information and Criteria

One purpose of the Junior Civic League is to afford financial opportunity for continued intellectual improvement. To further that purpose, the Junior Civic League awards annual scholarships to YSU students. Depending on availability of funds, scholarships up to $1000 may be awarded for the upcoming academic year.

EACH APPLICANT MUST:

- be a full-time YSU student enrolled for upcoming Fall semester
- have completed a minimum of 31 semester hours at YSU
- have a minimum grade point average of 3.0 on 4.0 scale
- have at least one parent of African American origin
- have three letters of recommendation
- complete a personal statement of academic goals, career goals, and scholarship need

The award is based primarily on academic performance and need. Current involvement in organized YSU academic and civic groups will be considered as well as the personal statement.

Application Deadline: April 1, 2019

Scholarship recipients will be notified by mid-June and should plan to attend the
